

COOK SUES HER BOSS FOR MISHAP IN AUTO

She Was Injured While Riding
in His Car, She Alleges,
Asking $10,000.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 5.—Miss Mary A. Gaffey of Brookline, Mass., has filed a $10,000 damage suit in the Norfolk County Superior Court against her employer, Lucius J. Barnett, for injuries which she alleges she sustained when his auto was involved in an accident in Swampscott last summer. Miss Gaffey alleges that she was employed by Mr. Barnett as cook at his summer home in Marblehead and that the terms of her employment provided that he furnish transportation for her to attend church Sunday mornings.

She claims that on Aug. 1, while being driven to church in Mr. Barnett's car, the chauffeur operated the car carelessly in turning a corner on Atlantic Street, Swampscott, with the result that the auto overturned and threw her out, causing her great injury to body and mind.

Miss Annie Walsh of Brookline, who claims to have been in the employ of Mr. Barnett and to have been an occupant of the auto when the accident occurred, has filed similar suit for $1,000.

FIND 12 BREWERIES MAKE REAL BEER

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The output of twenty breweries here has been analyzed by Government chemists in Washington and a dozen have been found guilty of producing real beer. District Attorney Cline has been instructed it is said to seize them under the old law of 1867 which provides confiscation if the brewers fail to pay the regular revenue tax on regular beer.

Oscar Anderson, a negro car cleaner, hailed before Judge Landis testified that a ring of car porters had flooded Chicago with Canadian whiskey.

HIS SOLICITUDE.
(From the Detroit News.)
Molasses, vanilla extract and Jamaica ginger have been found, upon analysis, to contain a high percentage of alcohol. "You're tired, wife; just get out of the kitchen and I'll do these dishes."

To the utmost limits of the world

THE first bit of silken loveliness in underwear came from Kaiser, the house pre-eminent.

Exquisite freshness—unexcelled sheen of texture—enduring softness. The purely artistic merit of this luxurious innovation was immediately appreciated by the American woman for whom it was created.

In fifty years, its enduring charm has penetrated the utmost limits of the earth. Paris—Calcutta—London—Argentina—even Egypt, the ancient mother of the art of textiles, and China, the first home of the silken arts—accord to Kaiser Silk Underwear unquestioned recognition of its excellence.

Today Kaiser "Italian" Silk Underwear may be obtained in all parts of the world, even the most remote: Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Ceylon, Chile, China, Cuba, Denmark, Egypt, England, Hawaii, India, Ireland, Mexico, Newfoundland, Norway, Panama, Philippine Islands, Peru, Porto Rico, Scotland, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Tasmania, Uruguay.
